Session Objectives

1. Begin to understand the skills needed for a successful transition, both in and out of the classroom, at UCF.
2. Become knowledgeable about academic support programs and resources for students at UCF.

Question #1

What academic resources or support services are most important to you for your student to have access to while at UCF?

New Student and Family Programs

Academic Expectations

Your student's responsibilities during their time at UCF:

- To develop a strong working, communicative, and open relationship with their Academic Success Coach, professors/faculty, and staff – connect at least once a semester
- To be honest about their academic performance and connect with appropriate assistance when necessary
- To understand academics and well-being are priority #1
- To check their UCF e-mail daily and respond accordingly
- To understand they are responsible for their academic journey and career readiness

Never be hesitant to ask for assistance
