Academic Success Coaches

ENGAGING

Academic Success Coaches

- Assigned to every student by their college
- Long-term start/finish academic support
- Help plan student academic career and goals from a holistic standpoint
- Support students through the transfer process (Transfer Shock)

WHAT IS “TRANSFER SHOCK?”

A temporary GPA dip common during the first semester after transfer.

Causes of "Transfer Shock"

- ❑ New Environment
- ❑ Adjustment Difficulties
- ❑ Academic Rigor/Advanced Courses
- ❑ Unaware of Resources
- ❑ Imposter Syndrome

ENGAGING

ENGAGING

- Combat It!
- Talk about it
- Validate the feelings
- Connect with Academic Success Coach

“Do I belong?”
Feelings of Self Doubt
Sense of Insecurity

It’s normal to feel self-doubt, but your student belongs here!

Pegasus Path

Pegasus Path is an interactive degree planning tool that will help students get from orientation to graduation.

The tool integrates with their myKnight Audit to help them graduate on time.

The plan is customizable, so your student can create the best plan that fits their needs. A student's Academic Success Coach will review their Pegasus Path during their first year at UCF.

FERPA Restrictions | Record Release Authorization
Record Release Authorization
This Online Record Release process authorizes the release of personally identifiable information, education records, and financial records to the third parties you, the student, give permission to. You must complete all items on the next page. By completing this you understand that this does not create a new User ID and Password to access your education records via myUCF.
Please note: requests for copies of grades requires a UCF Official Transcript, which carries a processing charge. For details, contact the Registrar's Office (407-823-3100) or the web site at http://registrar.ucf.edu/transcript-request
No current FERPA restriction information found.

Record Release Authorization

Choose the record(s) for which you authorize release, and designate one specific person, or one specific organization or agency to release the record(s) to. That one specific person can be yourself, if you are being advised remotely. Multiple persons and or multiple organizations/agencies will require multiple authorizations.

You must complete all areas including the name and address of the person (including yourself, if you are being advised remotely) or organization/agency to disclose to, the purpose of the disclosure, and if the disclosure may be made by phone, in person, or by email. If you choose to have your record(s) disclosed by phone or by email, you must provide a passcode that the person or organization/agency will need to provide prior to the disclosure or discussion of your record(s).

If there are records you wish to be released that are not on the list below, you will need to go to the Registrar's Office in Millican Hall, room 161 and request the paper version of the Records Release Authorization form. The release of disciplinary records information on Student Conduct Holds requires the completion of a disciplinary records waiver from the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities.

You must click "SAVE" at the bottom of the page to finalize your authorization.
